Malema's spiral in to dark ages

Since the ANC came into power in 1994, South Africa has noticeably slipped back into what can only be described as the dark ages.

The black population is being encouraged to cast off their Christian heritage, which is being described as the white man's religion, and to don again the dark attire of Ancestral Worship and slavery to superstition. This has led to a surge in the harvesting of and trafficking in human body parts, which are used in the sinister practices of this demonic art.

Many black voters have said that to vote against the ANC is to anger these ancestral spirits, which impersonate the dead and imprison the living. Malema himself has been heard as saying that he is operating under the influence of the spirit of Peter Mokaba as he defiantly and ignorantly encourages the murder of white farmers and the full scale expropriation and nationalisation of "white" businesses.

Preying on the frustrations of young people who have been let down by incompetent governance and the lack of delivery on promises of jobs and a better life for all this dangerous demagogue, who appears to be a mixture of Robert Mogabe and Idi Amin, is inciting the gullible as he gambles with the future of the Country by intentionally setting it on a course of confrontation and cataclysmic upheaval.

What is confusing is that the ANC, which was known in the past for its Leninist style discipline, is doing nothing to silence the uncontrolled tirades of this man who is obviously beside himself.

Malema se sleurgang na die donker eeue

"Sedert die ANC in 1994 aan bewind gekom het, het Suid-Afrika opsigtelik teruggesak in wat as niks anders as die donker eeue beskryf kan word nie.

"Die swart bevolking word aangemoedig om hul Christelike erfenis vaarwel toe te roep, wat as die wit man se godsdien beskryf word, en word weggeelok na die skemer praktyke van voorvaderaanbidding en slawerny van bygelowigheid. Dit het weer tot 'n oplewing in die oes van liggaamsdele gelei, wat weer in die sinistere demoniese praktyke neerslag vind.

"Baie swart kiesers het al gesê om teen die ANC te stem, is om die voorvadergeeste te vertoorn. Hierdie geeste "beliggaam" die afgestorwenes en hou die lewende gevange. Malema self is al aangehaal dat hy onder die invloed van Peter Mokaba se gees optree soos hy hardkoppig en in onkunde die moord op boere en die onteiening en nasionalisering van "wit" ondernemings bepleit.

"Hy teer op die frustrasies wat deur 'n onbevoegde regering in die steek gelaat is, terwyl die gebrek aan volvoering van beloftes soos werkseleenthede en 'n beter lewe vir almal, 'n teelaarde skep vir 'n demagoog wat skynbaar 'n mengsel van Robert Mugabe en Idi Amin verteenwoordig. Hy stook die liggelowiges op terwyl hy met die land se toekoms dobbel deur doelbewus op konfrontasie en opstande af te stuur.

"Dit is verwarrend dat die ANC wat berug geword het vir sy Leninistiese dissipline, nou niks doen om hierdie onbeheersde tirades van 'n man duidelik buite beheer, te stuit nie.
